Akhillesh to take over SP; illegal, says Mulayam

VIRENDRA SINGH RAWAT & ARVIND MOHAN
Lucknow/New Delhi, 1 January

With the succession battle settled in his favour on Saturday, Uttar Pradesh Chief Minister Akhilesh Yadav on Sunday showed he wasn't just a soft spoken, second-generation, dynast but has inherited the toughness of his father Mulayam Singh Yadav which is required to survive in the hurly burly of cow-belt politics.

The succession in the Samajwadi Party was completed in all respects when Akhilesh and his supporters, which included nearly all of the party legislators and senior leaders, passed a resolution at an emergency meeting open to media to dismiss Mulayam as party chief and appointed him a 'margdarshak', or mentor. The resolution appointed Akhilesh as the new national party chief.

Mulayam termed the meeting illegal and its decisions null and void. The SP patriarch has convened the party's national convention on Thursday.

In his speech at the meeting, Akhilesh alleged that the Bharatiya Janata Party (BJP) had engineered the infighting within the Samajwadi Party (SP). Another resolution dismissed party Rajya Sabha member Amar Singh from the party for sowing discord, while a third resolution sacked Shivalp Yadav as state party chief.

SUCCESSION BATTLE

Mulayam Singh Yadav dismissed, appointed as a 'margdarshak', or mentor

Amar Singh dismissed from the party for sowing discord

Shivalp Yadav removed as the state party chief

Akhilesh said Mulayam was being misled by forces outside the party and the changes were necessary for survival of the party. He didn't take any names, not even of his stepmother and her family which the Akhilesh camp accuses of having colluded with enemies of the party. Akhilesh appealed to SP cadres to defeat 'communal forces', a reference to BJP, in the forthcoming elections, and said he respected his father and would gift him a victory in UP. Later in the day, he appointed Naresh Uttam

Patel, a backward caste leader, as UP unit chief. The coup was complete with some muscle flexing when Akhilesh supporters barged into the party office at Vikramaditya Marg, threw out those who support state unit and chief Shivalp Yadav and wrenched off his nameplate. Shivalp was seen posting with the police to enter the office.

The fresh twists and turns in the SP feud, which could continue in the days to come, are likely to worry Prime Minister Narendra Modi and Bharatiya Janata Party chief Amit Shah who are scheduled to speak at a much-awaited public rally in Lucknow on Monday.

It is going to be Modi's first public rally after he announced sops on New Year's eve to ease the pain of 50-days of note ban.

Mulayam retaliated by announcing the dismissal of Ram Gopal Yadav from the SP for six years.

A similar order on him was issued on Friday, with Akhilesh similarly expelled. Mulayam rescinded this on Saturday, party leader and cabinet minister Mohd Azam Khan played peacemaker.

Nearly the entire party, including Mulayam loyalists, have switched sides to Akhilesh, after realising key leaders and the youth cadres were staunchly supporting him. The fragile peace in the faction-ridden SP was recently broken when Mulayam started to announce candidates for the assembly polls and Akhilesh retorted by releasing his own list.

The two sides are now preparing for another round of battle before the Election Commission and possibly the courts for the right to use the SP's electoral symbol, the bicycle.

Insurance firms, banks rush to invest in small finance banks

NAMRATA ACHARYA
Kolkata, 1 January

Small finance banks (SFBs) seem to have become the favourite of the season. In a majority of the proposed SFBs, insurance firms have picked up stakes. Banks and mutual funds, too, have been investing in SFBs.

One of the reasons that financial institutions are betting on is the potential synergy in distributing financial products in the rural and semi-urban markets, say experts.

At Ujjivan, which got listed on the stock exchanges a few months ago, insurance companies hold 9.75 per cent stake as on September 30, 2016. Insurance companies which picked up stake are HDFC Standard Life Insurance, Bajaj Allianz Life Insurance, Birla Sun Life Insurance, Max Life Insurance and Shriram Life Insurance.

"SFBs can be a potential channel to reach out rural customers. Also, we see it as a good investment opportunity going forward," said the executive of an insurance firm.

At Suryoday Microfinance, which plans to start operations by the middle of January, HDFC Holding and HDFC Life Insurance hold a combined stake a close to four per cent, said R Baskar Babu, chief executive of Suryoday Micro Finance.

The bank plans to start operations with around five branches, and scale it up to around 30 by March 2017. HDFC Bank, too, has picked up 4.99 per cent stake in the proposed bank. "From a strategic point of view, collaboration with banks and insurance companies will be useful in the long term. Majority of our loans, around 50 per cent of our portfolio, has to be less than ₹25 lakh. For the remaining portfolio, we may not like to write the portfolio in our books. So, bank can be a sourcing partner. As we start, we'll think of other ways of collaborating," said Babu.

"Insurance and mutual fund companies are proactive in investing in small finance banks. There are two reasons: one, from the investment perspective, and second from the point of view of future collaboration in the 'bank insurance model,' added Babu.

Disha Microfin, which will apply for a final banking license in January 2017, too, is in talks with insurance companies for raising funds. "We are in the final stages of closing deals for fundraising. Insurance companies are investing in almost all small finance companies. There are synergies in business requirement. There will be investors from the insurance sector in our bank, too," said Rajesh Yadav, CEO of Disha Microfin.

Varanasi-based Utkarsh Micro Finance has already signed a deal with Ratnakar Bank for close to 10 per cent stake in the proposed bank. This apart, ICICI Prudential will hold a little less than five per cent, while HDFC Life Insurance and Shriram Life Insurance, too, will hold close to five per cent stake each in the proposed bank, said Govind Singh, managing director of Utkarsh Micro Finance.

This apart, HDFC Ergo will hold a stake in the proposed bank, he added.

NUPUR ANAND
Mumbai, 1 January

Private sector lender Lakshmi Vilas Bank has raised ₹168 crore via qualified institutional placement (QIP) to augment its capital base. Centrum Capital is the sole lead manager to the issue. Commenting on the deal, Gaurav Bhandari, managing director, Centrum Broking, said "The funds raised will augment the capital base for the next level of growth for the bank."

Isro ends year with 7 missions, 34 launches

TE NARASIMHAN
Chennai, 1 January

The past year has been a highly successful and an eventful one for the Indian Space Research Organisation (ISRO), which achieved significant milestones in the domains of launch vehicle, satellite, applications and space exploration.

Isro launched seven vehicle missions in 2016. All were successful. Eight ISRO satellites, four student satellites and 22 foreign satellites were launched by these missions. Year 2016 also saw two successful advanced launch vehicle technology initiatives of ISRO — the Reusable Launch Vehicle-Technology Demonstrator (RLV-TD) and Scramjet technology demonstrator — having their maiden test flights.

Additionally, the Mars Orbiter Spacecraft of India completed two years in its orbit around Mars and India's ASTROSAT multi-wavelength observatory successfully completed one year in orbit. The year started off with PSLV-C31 carrying IRNSS-1E, the fifth satellite of the Indian Regional Navigational Satellite System (IRNSS) constellation, on January 20, 2016. It was followed by PSLV-C32/IRNSS-1F Mission. In this flight, which was its 34th, PSLV launched IRNSS-1F, the sixth satellite of the Indian Regional Navigational Satellite System (IRNSS) constellation, on March 10, 2016. PSLV launched the seventh and the last satellite IRNSS-1G of the IRNSS constellation on August 22, 2016.

With this, the space segment of the IRNSS is fully deployed. IRNSS signals are now available and trials with the receiver system are in progress. Prime Minister Narendra Modi dedicated IRNSS to the nation as 'Navic' (Navigation Indian Constellation).

This is an independent regional navigation satellite system designed to provide position information in the Indian region and 1,500 km around the Indian mainland. IRNSS provides two types of services, namely, Standard Positioning Services (provided to all users) and Restricted Services (provided to only authorised users).

FPIs in exit mode for 3rd month, pull out $4 bn in December

Foreign investors pulled out a massive $4 billion from the Indian capital market in December following rate hike by the US Federal Reserve.

This was the third month of outflows by foreign portfolio investors (FPIs) and most of the outflows by the overseas investors have been witnessed in the debt markets.

The latest FPI outflow took place following a withdrawal of ₹49,700 crore on a net basis from the capital market (equity and debt) in last two months (October-November). Prior to that, FPIs had pulled in ₹46,000 crore in the capital market in preceding three months (July-September).

"The US Federal Reserve's rate hike was certainly one reason for the outflow as the week leading to the announcement saw the maximum outflows as investors exited, expecting a lower spread with a US rate hike. Independent of that, it appears that the sharp rally in November in Indian gilts could have also led to profit booking by FPIs in the debt segment," Fundsinodia.com Head of Mutual Fund Research Vidya Bala said.

Net withdrawal by FPIs from equities stood at ₹17,676 crore in December, while from the debt market was ₹18,935 crore, translating into a total outflow of ₹22,111 crore ($3.98 billion), depositors' data showed. The pullout by FPIs started in October 2016 following uncertainty over the US election results and similar trend was observed in other emerging markets.

नवी दिल्ली, ता. १ (पोटीआय) : पंतप्रधानांच्या घोषणांवर टीका करणाऱ्या काँग्रेसवर हल्लाबोल घडवितांना वरिष्ठ केंद्रीय मंत्र्यांनी आज गरीब आणि गरीबामध्ये राहणाऱ्या लोकांच्या फायद्यासाठी घेतलेले निर्णय विरोधी पक्षास पचत नसल्याचा आरोप केला.

गृहमंत्री राजनाथसिंह यांनी त्यांच्या एका निवेदनात म्हटले आहे, की काळ रात्री

पंतप्रधान नरेंद्र मोदी यांनी लोकहिताच्या विकासाच्या निर्णयांची घोषणा केली आणि ते त्यांच्या नेतृत्व आणि स्वयंसेवा देणारा पुढे घेऊन जात आहेत. पंतप्रधानांनी केलेल्या घोषणांचा फायदा गाव, गरीब आणि शेतकऱ्यांना, तसेच समाजातील अन्य सर्व घटकांना होणार आहे. घनद्रीय सरकार गरीब आणि दुर्बल घटकांच्या कल्याणासाठी कटिबद्ध असल्याचे

पंतप्रधानांनी पुन्हा एकदा स्पष्ट केले. नायडू म्हणाले, की काळ्या पेशावरातची माहिती सार्वजनिक केल्यानंतर विरोधी पक्षाची पांच उडेजाट येतील. नवीन वर्ष सख्खे करण्यासाठी पंतप्रधानांनी करणारे कठिमे नेते राहुल गांधी यांना लक्ष्य करताना नायडू यांनी यावरून लोकांच्या मुखावर हे पक्ष किती गंभीर आहे हेच दिसून येते, असा टोला लगावला.

समाजवादी पक्षातील अनेकगट यादवी ही विरोधकांच्या पक्षावर पडणारी असली तरी मुळात यातून अखिलेश यांची प्रतिमा अधिक ताबूतसल्लाखून निघणार आहे. सध्या उत्तरेतील यादवी पूर्वनिर्गोजित असल्याचा दावा करणे बाइसाचे ठरणार नाही. - नितीनकुमार मिश्रे, वाचक

आम्हाला स्वतंत्र चिन्ह द्या: आठवले

मिरिंद वेंच : सकाळ वृत्तसेवा

रामदास आठवले

शिवसेना-रिवाज युती होत. तेव्हा आमच्या वाटचालीला राब्यात २९ जागा आल्या होत्या. या वेळी निवडनेतऱ्यांक युती होईल, असा आमचा प्रयत्न आहे. युती झाल्यास आम्हाला २५ ते ३० जागा हव्या आहेत. युती न झाल्यास निवडणुकीसाठी गेल्या वेळी भाजप-

आम्ही भाजपकडे ५० जागांची मागणी करणार आहोत. मुख्यमंत्री वेक्टर फडणवीस आणि शिवसेनेचे कार्याध्यक्ष उद्धव ठाकरे यांच्याशी कोट्युत्तरीसाठी प्रयत्न करणार आहोत. ते म्हणाले, "मुंबई काळात राब्यातील आठ महापालिकांच्या निवडणुकीसाठी चार सदस्यांचा प्रभाग तयार करण्यात आल्याने प्रभागाची व्याप्ती वाढली असून, मतदारांची संख्याही चौफट झाली आहे. अनेक ठिकाणी छोट्या विधानसभा मतदारसंघांसाठी स्थिती राहणार आहे. पक्षाच्या उमेदवारांना एका

प्रभागात एक आणि दुसऱ्या प्रभागात दुसरे चिन्ह मिळू शकते. त्यामुळे पक्षाला स्वतंत्र चिन्ह मिळाल्यास निवडणूक लढविण्यासाठी उमेदवारांचा प्रचार करताना सफुवितक ठरेल. ते म्हणाले, "रिवाजच्या उमेदवारांनी भाजपच्या कमळाच्या चिन्हावर निवडणूक लढावी, असाही मातप्रवाह होता; परंतु त्यावर एकमत होणे अशक्य आहे. आम्हाला निवडणूक आयोगाची मान्यता असल्याने असे करणे उचित नाही. त्यामुळे निवडणूक आयोगाकडे स्वातंत्र्य चिन्हाचा प्रस्ताव आम्ही देणार आहोत."
