POLICY FOR PRESERVATION OF DOCUMENTS

Introduction:

Pursuant to the provisions of Securities and Exchange Board of India (Listing Obligations and Disclosure Requirements) Regulations, 2015, the Company's Board of Directors has formulated and adopted this policy for preservation of documents maintained by the Company either in physical Mode or electronic mode (hereinafter referred to as "Policy").

Effective Date:

This Policy shall be effective from December 1, 2015.

Definitions:

- "Act" means Companies Act, 2013 and rules framed there under.
- "Board" means Board of Directors of the Company.
- "Company" means DIL Limited (CIN: L99999MH1951PLC008485)
- "Employees" mean individuals on the payroll of the Company.
- "Regulations" means Income Tax Act, 1961, Central Excise Act, 1944, Accounting Standards and Foreign Exchange Management Act, 1999

Purpose of the Policy

The purpose of this Policy is to ensure that the requisite documents and records of the Company are adequately safeguarded and preserved as per the statutory requirements and to ensure that the records of the Company which are no longer needed or have become redundant may be discarded.

This Policy is also for the purpose of enabling the employees of the Company in understanding their obligations in retaining and preserving the documents and records which are required to be maintained as per the applicable statutory and regulatory requirements.

Preservation of documents:

1. The documents to be preserved are classified into two categories as follows-
 - (a) documents whose preservation shall be permanent in nature:

- (i) Register of members commencing from the date of the registration of the company and Index of members as required under the Act.
 - (ii) All other registers, returns and documents as may be required to be preserved permanently under the Act, Regulations and applicable law.
 - (iii) Agreements wherein the term of the agreement and/or the survival clause(s) are perpetual in nature.
- (b) documents with preservation period of not less than eight years after completion of the relevant transactions:
