 - the Related Party's interest in the transactions;
 - the nature, duration of the contract and particulars of the contract or arrangement;
 - the material terms of the contract or arrangement including the value, if any;
 - any advance paid or received for the contract or arrangement, if any;
 - the manner of determining the pricing and other commercial terms, both included as part of the contract and not considered as part of the contract;
 - whether all factors relevant to the contract have been considered, if not, the details of factors not considered with the rationale for not considering those factors; the persons/authority approving the transaction;
 - whether the proposed RPT is in Ordinary Course of Business and an Arms' Length Transaction or not.
 - any other information relevant or important for the Audit Committee to take a decision on the proposed transaction.

VI. Disclosures

- (a) Identification of Potential Related Party/ies: Every Director on the Board / Key Managerial Personnel of the Company shall disclose his/her concern or interest in any company or companies or bodies corporate, firms, or other association of individuals which shall include the shareholding, within such time and in such manner as prescribed under Section 184 of the Companies Act, 2013 read with Rule 9 of Companies (Meetings of Board and its Powers) Rules, 2014 and under Regulation 4(2)(f) of the Listing Regulations. On an annual basis (every financial year), the Company Secretary shall request such disclosure from each Director on the Board and KMP of the Company, as may be required by the Regulations.
- (b) The Company is required to disclose Related Party Transactions, if any, in the Board's Report to shareholders of the Company, on an annual basis as per requirement of the applicable provisions of the Regulations and the applicable Accounting Standards.
- (c) Details of all Material Related Party Transactions, if any, shall be disclosed quarterly along with Company's Compliance Report on Corporate Governance, in accordance with the Listing Regulations.
- (d) The Company is also required to disclose this Policy on its website and web link thereto shall be provided in the Annual Report of the Company.
- (e) The Company shall keep one or more registers giving separately the particulars of all contracts or arrangements with any Related Party, as required by the applicable provisions of the Act.
- (f) This Policy shall be communicated to the concerned functional heads including KMPs and other concerned officials of the Company.

VII. Criteria for determining Ordinary Course of Business and Arm's Length Transactions:

The following guidelines will be used to determine whether a transaction with Related Party is in ordinary course and on arm's length basis:

“Ordinary Course of Business”:

Ordinary Course of Business means a transaction which is:

- carried out in the normal course of business envisaged in accordance with the Memorandum of Association of the Company as amended from time to time; or
- a common commercial practice of the Company; or
- any other parameter/ criteria as may be decided by the Audit Committee / Board from time to time.

“Arm’s Length Transaction”:

“Arm’s Length Transaction” means a transaction between two related parties that is conducted as if they were unrelated, so that there is no conflict of interest.

In this regard, the following guidelines can be used by the Audit Committee for determining the Arm’s Length Transaction

- whether the transaction is commercially negotiated
- whether the terms of the transaction are fair and would apply on the same basis if the transaction did not involve a Related Party;
- whether the transaction would affect the independence of an independent director;
- whether the transaction would present an improper conflict of interest for any director or KMP, taking into account the size of the transaction, the overall financial position of the director/KMP or other Related Party, the direct or indirect nature of the director’s, KMP’s or other Related Party’s interest in the transaction and the ongoing nature of any proposed relationship.
- whether comparative quotes for similar transaction has been obtained.
- the Transfer Pricing guidelines issued by the relevant authorities under the provisions of Income-tax Act, 1961 may be used to determine the Arms’ Length Transaction on a case-to-case basis.
- any other matter(s), the Audit Committee considers relevant.

VIII. Violation of the Policy:

The Audit Committee of the Company, subject to supervision of the Board, shall be the competent authority for investigating and taking appropriate actions / steps for prevention or remedy of any breach and / or defaults in complying with this Policy. Any disciplinary action taken by the Audit Committee shall be in addition to the penal provisions of the Regulations.
